NEXT THURSDAY IS

THANKSGIVING DAY

(NOVEMBER 22nd - 1951)

SERVICEMAN'S CORNER:

Hi, fellows. Been kind of rainy and cold this week. I suppose you kids over there in Korea are really having the cold weather by now! We can remember the letters we got LAST winter---brrrr!

A lot of the fellows have been dropping into Brisbane the last weekend or so, on the usual 24, 48, or 3-day passes---such guys as Mickey Hunter---Johnny Coryell, Eddie Baron---and then there's Bob Tann, who has to report back to Oakland's Oak Knoll Hospital on the 29th; and Curt Richards, who will be heading back to San Diego for duty in the Navy again soon. John Clancy went back to base a little early, as he had some friends to look up in Southern California. Tod Van Kirk was around for awhile, and I don't know if he has returned to Service yet, or not.

Speaking of Coryell, Baron, and Hunter---they came to town personally to thank the local Lion's Club for the nice fruit-cakes sent out for Christmas. The fellows still state-side got their fruit-cakes early---as the mailing date on Christmas parcels for the overseas servicemen fell with a thud---on the 15th of this month. Therefore---the kids overseas can be expecting THEIR fruitcakes any time from now until Christmas---(IF the Byline and their address correctly listed!)

Well, gang---here's the letters which dropped through the mail-slot this week:

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA

Nov 4-51

Hi, Reeces!

I've been "going to write you folks" for some time, but different things came up, and I kept putting it off. I want to thank you NOW for sending the Bylines, which have been arriving regularly.

It seems that I missed seeing two of Brisbane's boys who were on the hospital ship a few weeks ago. The minute I read about the injured Marine, I jumped into the jeep and went down there. Only to find that the ship had sailed the night before!

That was one of the best things you ever did, Gladys---printing the names & addresses of the Brisbane Servicemen in your Byline. I knew that a lot of the fellows will thank you for it, as they can now compare notes with each other.

I have just completed a R & R in Japan. Had a good time, and got a chance to see Hiroshima---the result of the Atomic blast. It's nothing to laugh about, believe me!

Well, it seems like winter is settling in, as the evenings are getting mighty cold. Those tent stoves sure feel good. I know that it has already snowed up north.

There isn't too much news here that one can write about. Guess you'll have to "read it in the papers"! I am enclosing a snapshot of me. Put it up in the window---if you want to---otherwise, TEAR IT UP! As ever,

T/Sgt Henry "Hank"
Shultz-USMC

*****

Thanks, Hank---for the swell letter, and that GORGEOUS picture! I have put it up in the window, to kind of act as an "anti-dote" for all those pink-cheeked youngsters the gals here all stop and scream "Oh, isn't he CUTE!" over. So far, I have set up two nights in a row, trying to catch some teen-ager screaming "CUTE!" about YOUR picture---but have only caught odd and assorted characters muttering "I wonder what she sees in HIM!"---pure jealousy, boy---pure jealousy!

*****

BAINBRIDGE, MARYLAND

Nov. 7:51

Hello, Reeces:

Just a few lines to let you know that I am still kicking. Hope your family is all well. I have a few weeks to go before I am finished with "Boot Camp"---and then will try to get out there to see all my friends---and my mother and brother.

So you folks still have the Gas Station---how is business? Fine, I hope. How is Bob Tann doing? He doesn't know me, but I know him, and I sure hope he gets well soon---that will make ALL his friends happy!

Well, Reeces, I just had a few lines to write, so will say goodbye for now. I'm enclosing a snapshot for your office window.

Your friends,

CHARLES MacGARY
U.S. Navy.

*****

Well, Howdy Chuck! Thanks for the swell letter and snapshot. Mighty trim lookin' snapper, if I do say so ourselves! The picture will add a certain "something" to our Honor roll. In regards Bob Tann, he's up and around, and able to take nourishment, at the rate of about six cheeseburgers a day! And there's a certain "sparkle" in his eyes lately---due, no doubt, to the return of a certain teenage citizen from the Wilds of Nebraska! (see item in another part of this paper).

*****

Well, gang---that about does it for this time. Don't forget to write home and wish Mom, Dad, family, and friends, a "MERRY CHRISTMAS" in plenty of time for them to receive it. 'byeccc---

Your Editor---Gladys Reece.

CHRISTMAS PARTY PLANNED:

At a meeting of the Christmas Party Committee last Friday evening, it was decided to make a few changes this year. One of them being the route of the parade---down Visitation to the Recreation Center---and the other being the time---on a Sunday afternoon.

Miss Blanche Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman of 765 Humboldt Road, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Caparelli, of San Francisco--on November first, 1951--at a simple ceremony performed in Reno, Nevada. The young couple was accompanied by Mr. Caparelli's mother, Mrs. Rosalyn Caparelli, also of San Francisco. CONGRATULATIONS, MR. AND MRS. "BOB" CAPARELLI!!

LOCAL SERVICE-STATION ROBBED:

Late Friday Night, or early Saturday morning, of last weekend, the G & R SERVICE Station was broken into and robbed of several items. It is suspected that youngsters were involved, due to the nature of the stolen items. The Sheriff's office has been notified, and the area is being patrolled nightly henceforth. This is the third time vandals have broken into the Station--nothing being taken the other times but air-hoses and such. It is not believed that the same parties are responsible for this latest burglary.

SUGGESTIONS FROM THE POSTOFFICE:

Unsealed Xmas greetings sent as third-class mail without unauthorized writing enclosed are chargeable with 2 cents postage (if weight does not exceed 2 ounces). However, a minimum charge of 3 cents is applicable to such greeting cards which measure less than 4 inches long or 2 & 3/4 inches wide.

Patrons having a number of greeting cards to deposit are urged to tie them in bundles with addresses all faced one way before mailing so as to facilitate their handling in the postoffice.

Greeting cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, tinsel, and other similar substances for decorative purposes, which are likely to rub off and injure postal employees or damage canceling machines must be enclosed in tightly sealed envelopes with postage prepaid at the 1st-class rate, in order that such cards may be accepted for mailing.

Packaging and wrapping:--Pack articles carefully and tightly in strong durable containers. Wrap and tie packages securely with good quality paper and cord, but do not seal them unless name and address of sender are shown together with the printed inscription reading "Contents, Merchandise". Postmaster: this parcel may be opened for postal inspection, if necessary"--as sealed parcels are labeled and endorsed are subject to the letter rate of postage. The name and address of the sender may be hand-stamped or typewritten on the labels.

Limit of size:--Parcels sent by air or as 4th class matter are limited to a maximum of 100 inches length & girth combined.

Limit of weight:--The limit of weight of 1st & 4th class matter, including air parcel post, is 70 lbs.

Permissible additions and enclosures:--To encourage early mailing, senders are permitted to mark parcels "Please do not Open Until Christmas"--In addition, regular written salutations, such as "Merry Christmas", "Happy New Year", "With Best Wishes", as well as numbers, symbols, etc., for the purpose of description, may be enclosed with 3rd or 4th class (parcel post) mail. A simple dedicatory inscription, not of a personal nature, may be written in books, but other unauthorized written additions subject parcels to the letter rate of postage.

CABIN BY THE ROAD--by Elizabeth A. Theis: FINAL CHAPTER:

The store-keeper evidently was caught off guard--as he immediately gave a little nervous laugh, and went on, "Oh, the Brookley cabin! Nobody living there now. Quite a stench around there, you say? Probably a pole-cat crawled under there to get away from the dogs around here." He seemed strangely reticent while the Long family bought their few groceries.

After the Long's had driven away, the grocer seemed pre-occupied and very thoughtful. Finally the man who had been sitting at the pot-bellied stove got up and strolled over to the grocery counter.

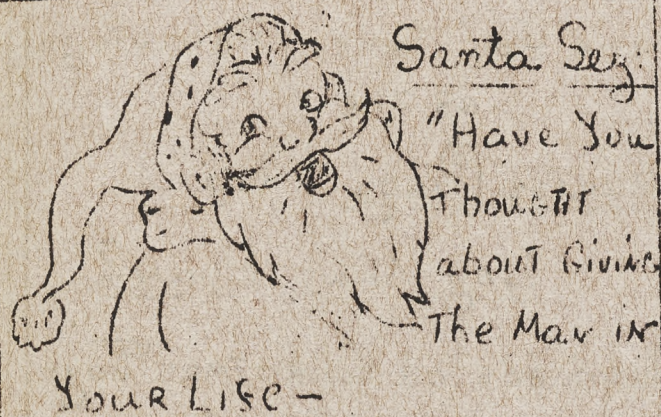

"All right, Jenkins--let's have the rest of the story--and no more of that covering up, if you don't mind." He was out of the County Sheriff's office.

Mr. Jenkins nodded, and sadly supplied the missing details to a mystery that the local sheriff's office had been investigating for some time. "Letty Brookley was a girl who had two strikes against her since she was born. First her mother ran away with another man when Letty was scarcely a year old. Then her dad took to drink. Letty was left to shift for herself a good deal, locked up in that cabin all day alone. She took to tearing up strips of paper to amuse herself. Then she took to whittling--cutting up pieces of stove wood into little chips. Finally her dad took to more than just drinking--he began to beat her when he'd come home. From the whittling knife to the hatchet Letty graduated. Then one day, she found herself a boy-friend. The minister's nephew, who came for a visit. I guess Letty figured that she'd never get him to propose if he ever saw her father on one of his tearing drunks. Anyway, one morning we found the old man's clothes on the banks of the river--we figured he'd drowned. Soon after that Letty left town--safely married to the minister's nephew. We all felt sorry for Letty, so some of us investigated too much. Now you can figure out the rest of the story yourself."

The deputy nodded. "Yes. I guess we'll find old man Brookley's body under the floor of that cabin. Probably chopped up fine, like the pile of chips. Well, the law's the law--and there's nothing we can do about it but go and bring Letty back!" and on this note he left the store.

Meanwhile, the Long family, many miles from the store, were blithely unaware that they had solved a mystery that might have gone unsolved for years but for their chance happening on the cabin. And they never knew that they had spent Halloween in a haunted cabin. As Mrs. Long would have put it--"What we don't know, won't hurt us!"
the end.

BRISBANE P.T.A. REPORT:

"ATTENTION, ALL FATHERS!"---Regardless of how many veiled insinuations by many irate and harrassed housewives and mothers that they take all the responsibility for "the kids"--we just refuse to believe it!

To prove this to you, the Brisbane P.T.A. has set aside an evening meeting entirely dedicated to the entertainment and relaxation of that ever-constant fellow who brings home the bacon--namely, FATHER!

Father's Night will be held in the Brisbane School auditorium on Thursday, November 29th, at 7:30 p.m. Adult Probation Officer, Mr. Don Helbush, will speak on "Crime and Rehabilitation". A humorous skit written and directed by Frankie KING, entitled "The Brooklyn Version of Blythe Spirit" is well calculated to keep you laughing for some time! The cast (?) will include Mrs. Robert Spencer, Mr. Clint Stewart, Mr. Frankie King, Mrs. Louis Duncan, and the P.T.A. Glee Club Quartet.

We would like to see all Fathers join in the fun on this night--and yes, DO bring your wife and the kiddies. Baby Sitters will be on hand for all comers!

Have you noticed lately how much better the General brand of pictures being shown for the younger fry have been? We think the parents of Brisbane should give Bob Hutsell A VOTE OF THANKS!

IN REGARDS STORAGE FOR NEWSPAPERS:

So far, we have received a lot of comment on Mrs. Salmon's suggestion that someplace be found to store the town's waste newspapers and magazines--so that local citizens wouldn't have to have stacks or cartons of papers cluttering up houses, basements, or yards--but comment is all we have received. No suggestions have been given as yet. Surely someone would have an idea for proper storage---? If such a place could be found--tons and tons of paper would not have to be burned or disposed of during the year.

IN REGARDS THE GILMAN CASE:

The rumor that has gone around saying that the Gilman case has been thrown out of court is wrong. We contacted Mrs. Gilman earlier this week, and she stated that another fifteen day continuance had been given. Otherwise, there has been no change in the case. We have left our phone number with Lois Preston, the Gilman lawyer---and we feel sure that she will call us if there is any change in the proceedings.
